

Undone Pinot Noir 2007

- Region: Rheinhessen is Germany's largest wine region by area. It has gently rolling hills and is situated in the climatically favored large elbow formed by the Rhein river as it flows from Worms to its sweeping bend around Mainz then back north at Bingen.
- Vintage: 2007 was a very good vintage in Germany. The harvest was one of the healthiest in years and of good quantity, which was welcome news as 2005 and 2006 saw a reduction in yield due to weather. Heavy rains in late September in Rheinhessen did make wineries scramble to harvest quickly, but since the summer had been perfect the grapes were ready. 2007s will show good depth of flavors with a balanced acidity, which is so important for German wines.
- Taste: This Undone Pinot Noir is very smooth, with berry and plum notes on the palate. It was fermented and aged in stainless steel tanks, so it has no oak influence – the pure flavors of Pinot Noir show through. A perfect match with salmon, red meat, and pasta.
